

“YOUTH CELEBRATING BOOKS”

Centre for the Book is reaching out to South African Youth by celebrating youth month with books. Vibrant young authors in the likes of Thembelani Ngenelwa, author of The Day I Died and Kopano Matlwa, author of Coconut and Spilt Milk, a 2010 winner of Wole Soyinka Prize are our guest authors. These two phenomenal writers will be sharing stage discussing their works with up and coming young authors from the Western Cape Region . Poets like Amanda Nodada, Primrose Mrwebi and Lerato Mapoga will showcase their amazing talent on stage in between speeches. The event takes place at Centre for the Book on Saturday, 5 June 2010 at 10h00.

We invest in youth, we invest in the future!
